

Helpful Hints from the Business TAG Panel

It'll be helpful to see a complete syllabus that includes a session-by-session schedule with specific topics covered. Textbook and other instructional materials and evaluation and grading standards are integral parts of a new semester syllabus and need to be included. Furthermore, the details provided on topics to be covered are required in order for the panel to determine if the TAG expectations are met.