Intervention Specialist Mild/Mod Excellence and Innovation Initiatives at University of Findlay

Description of Data: This section provides each program the opportunity to share information on a maximum of three initiatives geared to increase excellence and support innovation in the preparation of Ohio educators. (Data Source: University of Findlay)

Initiative #1: Hancock Park District

Purpose: To provide environmental and historical training to methods students and teach students in gr. PK-7.

Goal: To enhance environmental education and S.Studies curriculum in the Hancock County Schools.

Number of Participants: 50

Strategy: Methods students are trained by the Hancock County Park District to provide standards-based curriculum for area school children. Each methods block is assigned a curriculum: Nature Comes Alive/History Comes Alive or Pioneer Tyke Hyke. Teacher candidates are assigned groups to work with throughout a week of activities. Faculty work with the K-12 students to assist with the parks program as well.

Demonstration of Impact: Feedback from teachers and K-12 students

External Recognition: Recognized by the Hancock County Park Districts and invited to come back each semester.

Initiative #2: The Clubhouse

Purpose: Support and enhance the reading abilities and skills of struggling readers

Goal: Increase reading ability of struggling readers K-12

Number of Participants: 80

Strategy: Teacher candidates taking EDUC 423/EDFI 540 Assessment and Diagnosis of Reading Difficulties work with area school children throughout the semester to determine where they are struggling and plan and implement lessons to improve reading skills.

Demonstration of Impact: Pre/Post assessments

External Recognition: Funding for this is through UFHancock County Community Foundation and Hancock-Wood Electric.

Initiative #3: The Brain and Learning

Purpose: To increase candidates’ understanding of how the brain functions.

Goal: To apply the principles of brain research to teaching and learning

Number of Participants: 30

Strategy: Teacher candidates taking EDUC 423/EDFI 540 Assessment and Diagnosis of Reading Difficulties work with area school children throughout the semester to determine where they are struggling and plan and implement lessons to improve reading skills.

Demonstration of Impact: Course evaluations

Pre-Service Teacher Survey Results

Description of Data: To gather information on student satisfaction with the quality of preparation provided by their teacher education programs, the Ohio Board of Regents and a committee of representatives from Ohio institutions of higher education collaborated to develop a survey of Ohio's Pre-Service Teachers as a special research project. Questions on the survey are aligned with the Ohio Standards for the Teaching Profession (OSTP), Ohio licensure requirements, and elements of national accreditation. The Ohio Board of Regents distributed the online survey to candidates completing their student teaching experiences in Fall 2012. The results below reflect the program average (mean) score for each question, as well as the state average for each question. A total of 1,917 respondents completed the survey statewide for a response rate of 76 percent. (Data Source: Ohio Board of Regents)
