Educator Preparation Performance Report
University of Findlay

High-quality teachers and principals are developed through high-quality educator preparation programs. To continuously improve the quality of educator preparation programs in Ohio, H.B. 1 of the 128th General Assembly directed the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to develop a system for evaluating Ohio's educator preparation programs and holding institutions of higher education accountable for their graduates' success. H.B. 290 of the 128th General Assembly provided for the sharing of data between the Ohio Board of Regents and the Ohio Department of Education to link the performance of educators to the institutions that prepared them.

The identification of metrics and the report format were developed in collaboration with representatives from the 13 public and 38 private educator preparation providers in Ohio, state agencies, and organizations. The Board of Regents works with the Ohio Department of Education and educator preparation programs to collect data on the following identified preparation metrics for the annual reports:

- Ohio Teacher Evaluation System (OTES) Results for Program Completers
- Ohio Principal Evaluation System (OPES) Results for Program Completers
- Licensure Test Results for Program Completers
- Value-added Data (EVAAS) for Students Taught by Program Completers
- Candidate Academic Measures
- Field/Clinical Experiences
- Pre-Service Teacher Candidate Survey Results
- Resident Educator Survey Results
- Resident Educator Persistence Data
- Excellence and Innovation Initiatives

Ohio Teacher Evaluation System (OTES) Data for Individuals Completing Educator Preparation Programs
Reporting Period from Sept 1, 2013 to Aug 31, 2014

Description of Data:

Ohio's system for evaluating teachers (Ohio's Teacher Evaluation System) provides educators with a rich and detailed view of their performance, with a focus on specific strengths and opportunities for improvement. The system is research-based and designed to be transparent, fair, and adaptable to the specific contexts of Ohio's districts. Furthermore, it builds on what educators know about the importance of ongoing assessment and feedback as a powerful vehicle to support improved practice. Teacher performance and student academic growth are the two key components of Ohio's evaluation system.

Limitations of the Ohio Teacher Evaluation System (OTES) Data:

1. The information in the report is for those individuals receiving their licenses with effective years of 2010, 2011, 2012, and 2013.
2. The teacher evaluation data in this report are provided by the Ohio Department of Education based on the original framework of 50 percent teacher evaluation and 50 percent student growth measure.
3. The number of teachers (N) with associated OTES data remains small at this point, and due to Ohio Revised Code, must be masked for institutions with fewer than 10 linked teachers.

1. Principal performance rating, determined from:
 - a. A professional growth plan
 - b. Two 30 minute observations
 - c. Walkthroughs of building classrooms
2. Student academic growth rating for the building

The Ohio Principal Evaluation System (OPES) data reported here are limited in that the information in the report is for those individuals receiving their licenses with effective years of 2010, 2011, 2012, and 2013.

Licensure Test Scores for Individuals Completing Educator Preparation Programs at University of Findlay

Reporting period for 9/1/2012 through 8/31/2013

(Data Source: Ohio Department of Education)

Description of Data:

For the period reflected on this report, Ohio required that teacher candidates pass Praxis II® examinations by scoring at or above the state's established required score to be recommended for licensure and receive endorsements in specific fields. The reporting for Teacher Licensure Test Scores is based on Federal Title II data and therefore reflects only initial licensure for 2012-2013. The data also reflect the best attempt of each test taker. Data are not provided for additional licenses that an educator earns after her/his initial license. Most licenses in Ohio require that candidates pass more than one licensure examination, therefore the number of "Completers Tested" in the first table is smaller than the sum total of all takers of all assessments in the subsequent table. For institutions with fewer than 10 linked teachers or principals, only the N is reported.

Value-Added Data for Individuals Completing Educator Preparation Programs at University of Findlay
Reporting Period from Sept 1, 2013 to Aug 31, 2014

Description of Data:

Ohio's value-added data system provides educators a more complete picture of student growth. As a vital component of Ohio's accountability system, districts and educators have access to an extensive array of diagnostic data through the Education Value-Added Assessment System (EVAAS). From a state perspective, value-added data provide insights into student performance. For example, schools that do not appear to be achieving at high levels as traditionally measured can demonstrate through value-added data that many of their students are achieving significant progress. It is important to recognize these gains, as schools work to support students who have chronically struggled to perform. Student growth measures also provide students and parents with evidence of the impact of their efforts.

Limitations of the Value-Added Data:

1. The information in the report is for those individuals receiving their licenses with effective years of, 2010, 2011, 2012, and 2013.
2. The value-added data in this report are those reported by Ohio's Education Value-Added Assessment System (EVAAS) based on reading and mathematics achievement tests in grades 4-8.

Pre-Service Teacher Survey Results

Description of Data:

To gather information on student satisfaction with the quality of preparation provided by their educator preparation programs, the Ohio Board of Regents and a committee of representatives from Ohio institutions of higher education collaborated to develop a survey of Ohio's Pre-Service Teachers as a special research project. Questions on the survey are aligned with the Ohio Standards for the Teaching Profession (OSTP), Ohio licensure requirements, and elements of national accreditation. The Ohio Board of Regents distributed the online survey to candidates completing their student teaching experiences and collected the data for the Reporting Period from Sept 1, 2013 to Aug 31, 2014. A total of 4206 respondents completed the survey statewide for a response rate of 70 percent.

Statewide Survey of OHIO Resident Educators' Reflections on their Educator Preparation Program

Description of Data:

To gather information on student satisfaction with the quality of preparation provided by their educator preparation programs, the Ohio Board of Regents and a committee of representatives from Ohio institutions of higher education collaborated to develop a survey of Ohio's Resident Educators as a special research project. Questions on the survey are aligned with the Ohio Standards for the Teaching Profession (OSTP), Ohio licensure requirements, and elements of national accreditation. A total of 434 respondents completed the survey statewide for a response rate of 16 Percent. The Ohio Board of Regents distributed the online survey to candidates completing their Resident Educator experiences and collected the data for the Reporting Period from Sept 1, 2013 to Aug 31, 2014.

Excellence and Innovation Initiatives

Reporting Period from Sept 1, 2013 to Aug 31, 2014

(Data Source: University of Findlay)

Description of Data:

This section provides each program the opportunity to share information on a maximum of three initiatives geared to increase excellence and support innovation in the preparation of Ohio educators.

Teacher Licensure Programs

Initiative:	The Clubhouse
Purpose:	To support and enhance the reading abilities and skills of struggling readers
Goal:	Increase reading ability of struggling readers K-12
Number of Participants:	178
Strategy:	Teacher candidates taking EDUC 423/EDFI 540, Assessment and diagnosis of Reading Difficulties, work with small groups of area school children throughout the semester to determine where they are struggling and plan and implement lessons to improve reading skills. The Clubhouse, established in 2008 and based within The University of Findlay's College of Education, is a free literacy outreach service provided to children of Hancock County and surrounding areas. It is the only free, after school program in the area that provides tutoring based on the individual needs of struggling readers. The Clubhouse also provides free, individualized tutoring through grants.
Demonstration of Impact:	In the individual tutoring students are given pre- and post assessments, the 3 Minute Assessment (Rasinki & Padak). Through these assessments we can see student growth.
External Recognition:	Grant funding to support this program through The University of Findlay, The Hancock County Community Foundation and Hancock-Wood Electric
Programs:	Early Childhood, Intervention Specialist and Middle Childhood
Initiative:	Higher Ed Interaction in PK-12 schools.
Purpose:	Collaboration
Goal:	To increase the involvement of higher education faculty in pk-12 schools.
Number of Participants:	98
Strategy:	The University of Findlay faculty supervise students in the field and collaborate on projects related to literacy, assessment and methodology. Faculty work with 7th grade teachers in Findlay City Schools. Methods students are trained by Findlay City School teachers to work with parents and manage Students during an overnight field trip. Teacher candidates are assigned a three day, two night session camp. During that session teacher candidates guide students through the daily camp routine and chaperon the cabins at night. Teacher candidates are also taught by adjuncts in actual classroom settings in Findlay City Schools.
Demonstration of Impact:	Feedback from teachers and K-12 students.
External Recognition:	Recognized by Findlay City Schools and are invited back each semester.

Programs:	All programs
Initiative:	Chinju National University Partnership
Purpose:	To provide opportunities for teacher candidates to interact with students from another culture and possibly be immersed in that culture.
Goal:	To enhance cultural awareness and diversity
Number of Participants:	18
Strategy:	Chinju National University began bringing students to The University of Findlay for a one month experience on the UF campus in 2010. College of Education students partner with the Chinju students as ambassadors and exchange e-mails during fall semester. Once the students are on campus (Jan-Feb), Chinju students attend UF COE classes and events are planned for ambassadors to interact with Chinju students. The Chinju students also observe elementary schools in Findlay City School District. In the summer of 2013 UF had one faculty member and four students take advantage of this opportunity. We have also had students do their student teaching in Korea.
Demonstration of Impact:	Data has been collected on how interaction has impacted candidates' perceptions.
External Recognition:	Continued relationship with Chinju National University.

Principal Licensure Programs

Initiative:	Embedding Internships into Strand Courses
Purpose:	Create more opportunities for candidates to get experience.
Goal:	All candidates gain more internship experiences
Number of Participants:	46
Strategy:	Before the culminating field experience, in the eight core classes required for a principal's license, there is a small internship built into each. This allows for candidates to gain experience in every aspect of the principal's job.
Demonstration of Impact:
