TASK FORCE ON CAMPUS SECURITY MEETING April 30

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Ohio Board of Regents Chancellor Eric D. Fingerhut will convene the first meeting of the Task Force on Campus Security from 1 to 3 p.m., Monday, April 30, 2007.

Given the tragic events that occurred on the campus of Virginia Tech on April 16, Governor Ted Strickland asked Chancellor Fingerhut to establish the Task Force to review campus safety plans and ensure that Ohio's public colleges and universities are using safety best practices. More than 70 individuals from Ohio's public and private colleges and universities have expressed interest in serving on the Task Force.

Eight different locations throughout the state have been identified as videoconferencing sites that will be open to the members of the Task Force, the public and media. Those sites include:

University of Akron
