NOTE: There are 25 colleges receiving Perkins funding. The Regents monitored 10 colleges in FY07. For FY08, the Regents will monitor 11 schools. Hocking Tech participates in a secondary school consortium and will be monitored by ODE with assistance from the Regents; Terra C.C. participates in a consortium with Jefferson C.C.; and Southern State, Edison, and Marion Tech participate in a consortium. The fiscal agents for the two college consortiums are: Jefferson C.C. and Marion Tech. The fiscal agent schools, if selected for an on-site, will receive the visit. Information from all the schools in a consortium must be included in the examples of evidence.
